Washington Team Deposed From First

Place-Tied With Baltimore. The tale that is to be told of the senatorial base ball doings since Friday is not an encouraging one. The home team has dropped two Baltimore for second place. The only consolation about the matter is that the two games were close ones and the Statesmen did not lose them through rank playing. That of Saturday resulted in the score of 4 to 3. Maloney and Riddle and McDermot and Murphy were the batteries. The Jersey City team took an early lead of 2 to 0 and held it up to the seventh inning, when each side made two runs. It was at this time that Bader was so unfortunate as to muff a fly ball, which caused the scoring of two runs. Washington almost tied the score in the 9th, but not quite. Washington made 7 hits and 4 errors not quite. Washington made 7 hits and 4 errors (Bader, Gleason, O'Brien and Hill) and Jersey City 8 hits and 3 errors. Of these eight hits four were two-baggers. Riddle made a couple of singles. The game was very short, only taking one hour and twenty-four minutes to play. Yesterday Jersey City won again by scoring one run in the tenth inning. The tally was 7 to 6. The Senators had played a good up-hill game against the score of 6 to 0, tying the score in the eighth by making three runs. Two of in the eighth by making three runs. Two of these resulted from Whistler's home-run hit over the fence. Phillips and Riddle and Fitzgerald and Murphy were in the points. The Sonators played almost a perfect game, Riddle being credited with the only error, but the other side took kindly to Phillips' delivery early, earning 6 of the 7 runs. After three innings of this sort of thing Phillips steadied himself and kept the Gladiators guessing. In the tenth, with two men out, Murphy made a hit and stole second, and then scored on Fitzgerald's single. Bader helped to tie the score in the eighth with a three-bagger. Washington made 10 hits and 1 error and Jersey City 15 hits and

OTHER GAMES. New Haven, Worcester and Newark were the other winners Saturday. Baltimore lost to New Haven, 2 to 1. Horner and Hofford and Baker and Tate were the batteries. Baltimore made 7 hits and 3 errors and New Haven 5 hits and 3 errors.

Newark shut Hartford out, 9 to 0. The points were filled by Miller and Duffy and Fagin, Staib and Moore. Newark made 10 hits and 2 errors and Hartford 2 hits and 4

Wilmington was left out of sight by Worcester, 17 to 7. The ex-champions made 9 runs in the fourth inning. Lyston and Wilson and Galligan, Stein and Corcoran were the batteries. Wilmington made 5 hits and 2 errors and Worcester 18 hits and 6 errors. Baltimore played a game yesterday and won it, thus tying Washington for second place. Newark was the victim, the score being 11 to Mace, who had not lost a game since his release by Washington, was knocked out of the box in the second inning, when the Orioles made 7 runs. Baltimore made 10 hits and 4 errors and Newark 4 hits and 4 errors. Mace, Sullivan and Duffy and German and Tate were

NOTES.

Now let us win a game-in fact, several. Baltimore is jubilant again. It is about time to try the new pitcher.

New York is second in the league and third Whistler keeps up his home-run record. He made two hits yesterday.

New Haven has signed Dickerson, a Baltimorean, to play second, while a dicker is being conducted for Pettit's release from Milwaukee.

Newark has released Pitcher Oberlander. The Kendalls were defeated at Annapolis by The All-District Club started the season well on Saturday by winning from the Snow Club, 11 to 3. The pitching of Watson and the catching of Oulahan for the victors were the features of the game.

The Ferson Base Ball Club defeated the Ordnance team Saturday at Atlantic Park by a score of 14 to 3 and the West Ends yesterday by Boston, who is staying at the Company of a score of 23 to 3.

RUFFIANISM AT COLLEGE.

Ex-Senator Miller's Son Roughly Attacked for Carrying a Cane.

Burr C. Miller, son of ex-United States Senator Warner Miller, is a freshman at the Syracuse University. The sophomores won the cane rush several weeks ago and since then no freshman has dared to carry a cane until young Miller appeared in Foreman Park Saturday with a young lady and a silver-headed cane of large daughter of Senator Wagner, who was killed in caliber. Four sophomores met Miller and his Luther Grervey, the driver of the wagon. companion on the promenade in the park and proceeded to take the cane away from him. A fierce fight ensued in plain view of scores of people. Miller was overpowered and the sophs people. Miller was overpowered and the sophs ran off with the cane, leaving the son of the ex-Senator to be assisted to his feet by the young lady. His clothes were badly torn and He tried to avoid the girl and also to keep the there were several ugly bruises about his face and neck.

A Big Bridge Swept Away.

Yesterday afternoon the flood in the Ohio river swept away the uncompleted channel span of the big union railroad bridge of the Wheeling Bridge and Terminal Company at Wheeling, entailing a loss of about $30,000. The loss falls on Baird Brothers of Pittsburg. the contractors for the erection of the superstructure, and on the Edgemoor Steel Company of Wilmington, Del., who made and delivered the metal. The span, which is 525 feet long. had been filled in with heavy timber false work to the level of the bridge floor, 105 feet above the river, and on top of this was an immense traveler towering 103 feet above the bridge. The work of hoisting metal had been going on for ten days, and four hundred tons were in

OVER IN VIRGINIA. Farming Notes From Falls Church-Social Doings, Etc.

FALLS CHURCH, VA., May 24. Correspondence of THE EVENING STAR.

The similarity of this spring with the last is truly striking. As commonly expressed "they are as near alike as two peas." The freshness of the verdure of forest and field of both seasons is the result of the frequent rainfalls, which, however, interrupt farm work detrimentally. The weeds are considerably shead of the cultivator and the corn. I have not seen for several years so many quails in the spring as are visible now. The rabbit increase games to Jersey City and is consequently no this season also promises to be large; more onger in the lead in the race, but is tied with nests of the young, so far, have been found than usual. The extreme limit of a litter I had supposed was five and I had never seen more than that, but a nest found here recently contained eight young rabbits. The apple and cherry trees had a remarkably om this spring. There will be a moderate crop of gooseberries, and according to reports there will be only that of strawberries, and from present indications there will be a fair crop of raspberries. The wild blackberry bushes never looked more beautiful and promising than now, and grapes ditto, but the rot will finish them up, as usual.

I have not seen a Colorado potato bug this season, and very few cabbage butterflies have made their appearance. Charles Darling, some ten or twelve years old, fell from the roof of the new residence being built for Mr. G. A. L. Merrifield to the ground a few days ago, a distance of about thirty feet. He was taken up insensible, but was not much injured and has nearly recovered. Mrs. Elizabeth Pope formed a "hatchet party" of our young folks and gave an enter-tainment here recently of a colloquial and mu-sical character for the benefit of the M. E. Church. The audience was greatly amused with the exercises.

Mr. L. L. Northrup, who has been for many years the agent of the Cooley Creamery Company of Bellow's Fails, Vt., moves his family to that place this week. Mr. A. J. Wedderburn, proprietor of the Farm and Fireside and late editor of the Progress at Alexandria, has moved, according to report, back to Grange Camp and will continue the publication of the farm journal at that place. Another fair is to be held there the coming season.

The Rev. F. W. Tuckerman has resigned the pastorate of the Congregational Church, it is said, on account of ill health. Mr. Edmund Flagg and Mrs. Flagg gave recently a pleasant reception at their residence at Highland View to the friends of their son Howard and bride on the return from their bridal tour. The young people go immediately to their future home, Eastwood farm, a few miles away, where the groom's earliest years

It appears to be determined that the line to link the Baltimore and Ohio and Chesapeake and Ohio railroads will cross the Potomac at the Chain Bridge and run up the valley of Pimmit creek, crossing the W., O. and W. railroad between Dunn-Loring and Grange Camp. John Brush, a democrat, is appointed supervisor in this district. The district has been divided, and I heard a republican say that this was done, he supposed, to enable the appointing power to be a little generous toward the republicans by giving an appointment to a republican. He may have been a sorehead. Hon. J. M. Thom has been appointed and it is an appointment "fit to be made." L.S.A.

KILLED BY A MAIL WAGON. The Terrible Death of a Beautiful Girl in New York.

Marion Wagner Taylor, the eldest daughter of Jas. D. Taylor, the treasurer of the Wagner Sleeping Car Company, was run over by a mail wagon in 42d street near Madison avenue, New York, Saturday and received injuries from which she died in less than two hours. Miss Taylor was out walking with a lady friend. They strolled in 5th avenue and Madison avenue. They strolled in 5th avenue and Madison avenue. The strolled in 5th avenue and Madison avenue, New York, Saturday and received injuries from with the strolled in 5th avenue and Madison avenue. The strolled in 5th avenue and Madi Sleeping Car Company, was run over by a mail They strolled in 5th avenue and Madison avenue until about 7 o'clock, and then they started up 42d street toward 5th avenue, laughing and chatting and not noticing the mail wagon coming at a furious pace down the hill. The girls had got to the middle of the street when Chas. Bruen shouted: "Look out! For God's sake. hold your horses!"

The girls heard the warning cry and it confused them. They jumped in different direc-tions without having any idea of where they were going. Before Miss Taylor could collect her senses the mail wagon was within a few feet of her and the end of a heavy pole attached to a double truck, with about a ton of empty mail sacks in it, struck her in the neck and knocked her down. One piercing scream was all the poor girl uttered as the horses and wagon passed over her.

When the big wagon had gone by Miss Taylor lay on the pavement perfectly still, as it dead, and blood was flowing from her mouth, Boston, who is staying at the Astor House, saw the girl struck and jumped to Miss Tay-lor's aid. He thought that she was dead, but after a moment she breathed faintly and the blood gushed from her mouth. She moaned pitifully and the crowd, which had gathered, was pushed aside by several policemen to allow the cool breeze to reach her. Strong and willing hands came to the rescue and picked up the body of the beautiful girl and gently carried her to the sidewalk. A carriage was called immediately and Miss Taylor was lifted into it and quickly driven to her home, only a short distance away.
Dr. Purdy of No. 304 Madison avenue, the family physician, was called at once and administered an opiate and stimulant. Miss Taylor was suffering terribly and the household, where everybody loved her, was filled with grief. Miss Taylor's family begged the doctor to save her life and he worked faithfully over her for nearly two hours. All that medical skill could furnish was of no avail and she breathed fainter and fainter until the doctor stepped sadly away from the bedside and told the weeping family that she was dead. The bones of her chest and spine had been started down the hill at 5th avenue, took the bit in his mouth and he could not manage him. wagon from upsetting, but the animals could not be guided.

SERIOUS DRIVING ACCIDENT. A Horse Frightened at a Blevcle and Three Persons Injured.

Walter Davis, his sister Clara and Miss Jennie Greer, who reside at Hartford, Pa., met with a serious accident while out driving yesterday. The horse became frightened at a bicycle and violently to the ground. Miss Davis received an ugly cut four inches long on the forehead, while Miss Greer had her right cheek laid open from mouth to ear. Walter Davis escaped with a few slight bruises and bravely held on to the animal, which struggled for freedom. The carriage was completely demolished, the shafts breaking off short, one of them piercing the animal's body. Another carriage was secured and the party drove to Rancocas and had their wounds dressed. Pursuit was made for the man with the bicycle, but he disappeared toward Mount Holly. The party soon gave up the chase and returned to their homes.

Unveiling of the Lee Statue. Maryland is preparing to send a large representation to Richmond on the occasion of the unveiling of the statue of Gen. Lee. The Fifth Regiment of Baltimore will leave, together with its veteran corps, in a special train Tues-day. The Maryland Society of the Army and Navy of the Confederate States will start the same evening. Many smaller parties are forming to participate in the unveiling ceremonics and not a few Baltimoreans have already left.

Attired as Roman Soldiers. St. Mary's Polish Catholic Church at Reading was the scene of an interesting and unique ceremony yesterday. The service was held in observance of Whitsunday, when the held in observance of Whitsunday, when the Holy Ghost descended upon the disciples. From last Good Friday to Easter a representation of Christ's tomb had been placed inside the chancel, which was guarded night and day by sixteen members of the congregation attired as the Roman soldiers of old. These guards were placed on duty both at high mass at 10 o'clock and at vespers at 4. The uniform of the soldiers consisted of a dark blue frock coat and pantaloons, the latter with a red cord stripe, and upon the breast of the coat was a large red shield. A nickel helmet, well burnished, a flowing white plume, gold cord, white braid, white belt and a glistening sword completed each outfit. AUCTION SALES.

THE EVENING STAR is offered to the publie, in good faith and with confidence, as THE BEST LOCAL ADVERTISING MEDIUM IN THE UNITED STATES. In point of fact, it may be truthfully said that it is without an equal in this respect any where in the world, These averments are borne out by the figures given below, which are compiled from the sworn weekly statements printed in the paper on each Monday in the year, and condensed from the sworn tabular statements showing the average daily circulation of the paper during the year 1889, published in THE STAR on the 18th of January, 1890.

Briefly stated, the points upon which the shove claim is based are these: That-

1. The Star has three times the circulation of any other paper in Washing-2. The Star's circulation in Washings ton is double that of all the other daily papers published in the city added to-3. The Star has a larger and fuller circulation in the city where printed, in proportion to reading and purchasing population, than any other newspaper in the world!!! 4. The Star has the largest regular and permanent home circulation of

Of this number. 21,142 were delivered daily by regular carriers at the homes of permanent sub-

The remaining 6.740 copies represent the sales over the office counter, at the news stands, and by newsboys. But of this latter number a very large proportion is supplied regularly to permanent residents of the city living in lodgings. &c. (not householders), so that its whole circula tion may be literally said to be in the family circle. While its aggregate circulation therefore gives THE STAR a distinctive and enviable position in modern journalism, the fullness of its home circulation, the extent to which it is relied upon by members of the household, and particularly by the purchasing portion of the community, are the marked characteristics of the paper, to which no other daily journal now published can furnish a parallel. This is no idle boast on the part of the paper. It is a well established fact, demonstrated to the full satisfaction of the sagacious and enterprising business men of Washington, who seek and know where to find THE LARGEST RETURNS FROM THE MONEY PAID OUT FOR ADVERTISING. This is proven by the growth of THE STAR's advertising patronage. Nothing can more surely illustrate the esteem in which any article is held by the public than a constantly increasing demand for it-day by day, week by week, month by month, and year by year, -in the face of adverse claims and pretentious competition. The figures following tell the story on this point:

But it is not alone in numbers that the great increase of advertising is shown. The larger space required for advertisements during the year 1889 as compared with that occupied in The average daily space filled by advertise ments in 1888 was 25.10 columns, or 7779 columns for the year; whereas for the year 1889 the daily average was 29.75 columns, or 9223 columns in the aggregate, being a total gain over the previous year of 1444 columns! And this, it must be remembered, consisted exclusively of the ordinary everyday business advertising, nothing in the way of tax sales, poll lists, election etc., such as occasionally swell the business of political organs, being included in its patron-

In conclusion, it is only necessary to say that, in proportion to the extent and high character of its circulation, THE STAR's advertising rates take rank with the very lowest in the country, and to add, finally, that every statement hereis made can be abundantly verified.
